

Join your colleagues from across the state in the WSHA

Quality Leader Learning Collaborative

 Washington State
Hospital Association

Highlights

- Showcasing innovative quality work from Washington hospitals
- Time for networking built into the agenda
- Breakfast and lunch included
- Registration is free for Washington hospital staff

Audience: Nursing, medical and quality leadership

Agenda Topics:

- Gender affirming care
- Getting back to community through organizational wellness
- Medication for opioid use disorder in the emergency department
- Medicaid quality incentive updates

Keynote Speaker:

Amy Compton-Phillips, MD

Amy is an internationally respected physician, executive, innovator, and author. October 2022, she became President at Press Ganey, focusing on simplifying health and care. Until September 2022, Amy was President of Clinical Care at Providence, responsible for clinical operations and care, including improving health, care, and value outcomes delivered by the 52 hospitals, 1,085 clinics, and 120,000 caregivers of the $25 billion health system. She was instrumental in Providence's early adoption and scaling of technology advancing the future of healthcare. Before joining Providence in 2015, Dr. Compton-Phillips spent 22 years at Kaiser Permanente, moving from a front-line internist to ultimately serving as Chief Quality Officer.

Monday May 20th

 8:30am - 2:30pm

 The Conference Center
at SEA

17801 International Blvd
SeaTac, WA 98158

 REGISTER HERE

Contact

 MeganH@wsa.org

 (206) 577-1839