

Guide: Learn and lead with new governance education shorts for hospital boards

Hospital boards play a critical role in ensuring safe, high-quality care. As part of WSHA's 2025-2027 strategic plan, we are making it easier than ever to strengthen that governance. Our series of quick, practical education shorts give boards the tools they need to lead on safety and quality with confidence.

Topics include:

- Engaging your board in its role of safety & quality
- The hospital board's responsibility for safety & quality
- The hospital board's role in clinical measures
- The hospital board's role in state & federal regulatory requirements
- The hospital board's responsibility for QAPI & CQIP
- The hospital board's role in medical staff credentialing & privileging

At less than 20 minutes each, these education shorts are an easy addition to a Board meeting agenda. There is also a facilitator guide to promote further discussion and engagement among Board members.
